HON. SAMUEL PARKER,
Chairman.

W. R. CASTLE.
JUDGE A. N. KEPOIKAI.
B. F. DILLINGHAM.
Judge J. L. Kaulukou was made permanent chairman of the convention and E. R. Hendry, permanent secretary.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

The first Territorial convention of the Republican party met yesterday in Progress Hall, and after a brief morning session and an evening session lasting from 7:45 to 11:10 p. m., adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning. The convention was marked by the freest of been requested to call the meeting to speech, more or less harmony, and the success of the good government majority of the delegates.

The men who by their conduct have become known in the party as the "good government crowd" elected a permanent chairman and secretary for the convention, and got the delegation they wanted of four members which is to represe t Hawaii at the National convention in Philadelphia. Today the convencion will settle the most important question of whether Hawaii is to have honest Republican primaries governed by definite rules, or whether the door is to be left open—by the absence of rules—for dishonest and unrepresen ative elections. The matter was brought un yesterday by the report of the committee on rules and regula-tions, which set down solid and well drawn laws to direct primaries, clubs and other internal organizations of the

Through the machinations and quibbles of the MACHINE the report of the committee was not adopted, but was left for argument this morning, when it is to be submitted, if possible, printed in both Hawaiian and English. The selection of the permanent chairman. L. Kaulukou and the secretary, E. R. Hendry, is satisfactory to the Good Government Republicans. The choosing of Samuel Parker, Judge Kep kai, W. R. Castle and B. F. Dillingham, shows excellent judgment.

Dillingham was the choice of all, and yet W. R. Castle, whose friends made no special effort for his election, recetved just as many votes as did Dilling-ham, his popular confrere on the dele-

MEMORIAL DAY.

Memorial Day so bright and fair.
The Lord He freely gave.
And many a bright and fragrant flowe
Was laid on many a grave
By willing hands, for love
For some dear friend above.

In this little city,
On this is and far away.
The dead was not forgotten
On Decoration Day;
And many a bud, and leaf, and flower,
Was plucked from many a leafy bower.

And placed on graves,
Both new and old,
Of these who've gone
To the upper fold
And now look, with smiling eyes,
Down from their homes in the skies.

Now as the years roll along
May we on each Memorial Day
Place fresh buds and flowers
On the graves of those who've passed away—
Flowers of white and flowers of red—
On the graves of the honored dead.

Thinks He Can Finish His Sewer Job in That Time.

The report of Resident Engineer Edwards on the construction of the sewer system was read at a meeting of the Cabinet yesterday morning. Contractor. John Wilson explained the condition of the outfall sewer now. He said that he had blasted and cleared out over a hundred and fifty feet more of material than he was given credit for in Edward's report.

Wilson said that he had been greatly hampered by lack of men owing to the quarantine regulations, but he thought that in ninety days he could finish his job. Edwards believed that it would be at least 120 days. The Cabinet did not decide definitely in the matter.
